

Conferences at The Kings Court Hotel

Situated in the heart of Shakespeare Country, only seven miles from Stratford-upon-Avon, the relaxed countryside surroundings of The Kings Court Hotel provides the perfect venue for every occasion.

The Kings Court Hotel, originally a Tudor farmhouse, has been delightfully extended over the years, and now hosts 61 en-suite bedrooms. All rooms have been designed with your personal needs & comfort in mind, and our staff are on hand to make your stay with us both enjoyable and relaxing.

We pride our self on providing a professional and friendly service to all of our guests. We are the ideal venue whether your needs are personal or corporate. Our Events Manager will be happy to discuss your individual requirements.

Sit back, relax and let us do the planning and hard work for you and we will guarantee that you will be pleasantly rewarded. Experience has taught us that our success has been built on personal recommendation and the repeat custom from our previous guests.

We hope that you will find this information of interest and look forward to welcoming you to The Kings Court Hotel in the near future.

The perfect place for business or pleasure...

Kings Court has six rooms available for private hire, to cater for conferences, seminars or private parties which all enjoy privacy, natural daylight and attentive staff. Individual packages to suit you and your tastes from food to room lay out can easily be created to ensure that you have the perfect day.

Our restaurant offers an extensive menu for which our team of chefs use the finest local produce, as well as our buffet of cold meats, salads, hot dishes and desserts available Monday to Friday lunchtimes, an extremely popular choice. If you fancy something lighter, the Twisted Boot has a fantastic bar menu, offering a range of traditional and modern cuisine, as well as a variety of cask conditioned ales and an extensive wine list, perfect to wind down after a hard day.

With its setting, friendly staff and excellent reputation, the Kings Court hotel is a hugely popular choice so please book early so as to avoid disappointment.
